

MARSHFIELD.

AT REST.

[In memory of] Emilia E. Williams,
born May 10, 1810, died Nov. 10, 1884.
Her life was a life of prayer and piety.
She was a true and faithful friend.
Her death is a loss to her family and friends.

From what we hear we know that she was a true and faithful friend.
She was a true and faithful friend.
Her death is a loss to her family and friends.

SOUTH SHORE AND COUNTY.

Mr. Emma Reed is the oldest inhabitant of Hingham, she was born in Hingham, August 13, 1792.

Her house has been planted along the highway of Hingham since the month of October came in.

Citizens of Hingham are petitioning to have a law made to prevent instruction in the public schools compulsory.

Miss Ida Slack of W. Abington, one of the graduates of the class of '83, is teaching school in Hingham.

Over 1,000 tons of coal have been laid by the Old Colony railroad on its leased line, the Lowell and Framingham road.

The oldest postmaster in the United States is Miss Fanny Everett, of West Foxborough, Massachusetts, who is eighty-two.

Dock shooting on moonlight evenings is practiced at the point about Plymouth with great success. The season is remarkably good for shooting.

Water is difficult to get in Marshfield, that is, it is difficult to get it in Marshfield, that is, it is difficult to get it in Marshfield.

At the competitive exercise in declamation at Derby Academy last Friday, Alice G. Nelson and Eliza Thayer received the highest number of votes of their schoolmates.

Mr. Joseph Allen Sampson, one of the first conductors on the Old Colony Railroad between Plymouth and Boston, died at his residence in South Duxbury, December 7th, aged 63 years.

There has been quite a change of opinion in Marshfield in regard to the introduction of water, the town having voted last week 28 to 22 to petition the State.

There was a very pleasant family reunion at the residence of Mrs. Eliza Russell, on King street, Hingham, last Saturday evening. Mrs. Russell was presented with many beautiful and valuable tokens of regard.

It is rumored that the Weymouth Iron Co. are having a 400 horse power engine making at Bridgewater for their works at East Weymouth, and will no longer depend upon water to carry their work.

An Antiquarian supper took place at Hingham in the chapel of the Cong. Church on Tuesday evening and was well attended. Some of the costumes of our grandmothers were worn on the occasion, and were highly becoming to the wearers, and were much admired.

Three interloper fellows invaded upon entering the house of a venerable family, 53 years of age, when she grabbed a marmalade and so belabored the trio, that they were glad to make a hasty retreat. Always considered a woman's weapon.

C. T. Stetson, of Rockland, has invented a machine which fits channels and grooves on one side of one operation, doing the work with surprising rapidity and perfection.

A company of capitalists has purchased Mr. Stetson's interest in the machine and will soon call the attention of the boat and shoe manufacturing fraternity to it.

The granite yard of Charles H. Hardwick & Son, in Quincy, was entered on Tuesday night and five dies that had been polished and prepared for monuments were injured and defaced by knocking off corners, etc. The dies were valued at about $500, but the injurers can be repaired, perhaps, for one hundred dollars.

By the record of the rise and fall of Annapolis, it is shown that the lowest point reached this season was on Oct. 10, when there was thirteen and four fourth inches on the mud and at the head of the river. On the 10th inst. a rise of seven and one fourth inches was noted. The deepest water found there was forty-eight inches in February, 1879.

D. J. Sears of Hingham, picked last Monday from the garden in rear of his house on South street, opposite the post office, a bunch of twelve pears as handsome in size and color as any we saw during the season. Can anyone beat this for December?

Henry H. Faxon, Esq. has just sent to the Sabbath schools of Quincy (including all the villages and districts) without regard to denomination or situation, his check for money to be used exclusively in buying gifts for the children, the sum varying from $5 to $10.

The Rockland Standard says, Eighteen years ago Quincy and Marshfield, of South Abington, had a large sum of money and lands amounting to $100,000. Nothing was ever heard from it until last Wednesday.

Willie repairs were being made on the house of Daniel Reed, another brother, $2,000 in 7-10 bolts were discovered which were at once recognized by Marcus Reed, as part of the stolen property. No suspicion as far as we have been able to ascertain to the brother, and the mystery now to be solved, who is the guilty party.

Geo. W. Kelley, Esq., of Rockland, has been appointed to the judgeship of the second district court at Abington, filling the vacancy caused by the appointment of Judge Keith to the probate judgeship. Mr. Kelley has excellent qualifications for the place, and his selection is very gratifying to the people of that part of the county.

Miss Lucy Clark of Rochester, 81 years of age, was unfortunately slipped and fell last winter, fracturing her hip causing her to become a confirmed cripple, confining her to her bed ever since. During the last eight months, she has lost two limbs, sixteen pairs of stockings, besides "boots" four other pairs. She has also made three quilts, and quilted one. She cut and made every square. One quilt was composed of 147 pieces, and she has done a large quantity of other sewing in the time.

Miscellaneous.
Furniture Police has in stock the largest variety of chamber and parlor suits, lounge, ray chairs, book cases to be found anywhere in Quincy, America. We cannot speak too highly of this immense stock of fine furniture, to be had at very reasonable prices. This establishment packs and delivers goods very promptly, giving their customers the best satisfaction. Call at 48 Canal street when you go to Boston and see for yourself.—Boston Journal.

For artistic photographs, Mr. Oscar Kimball of 140 Court St., Boston, offers, in another column, twelve at very low rates (call and see him).

Louise Davenport Drake, Large assortment at low prices. Palace, 46 Canal street.—Boston Journal.

A lady found called at the house of her husband, five days later to inquire why she did not receive the water. The pipes were all connected and she did not wish to wait any longer. The clerk tried to reason with her, but it was like the effect of an electric shock to explain why so many millions were involved in the appearance of the water.

The editor of the correspondent of the water and the last with unpleasant feelings.—Abington Journal.

THE HOOPER SCHOOLBOY.
By Edward Eggleston. The scene of this charming story is laid in the Western Reserve, now known as a part of Indiana and Ohio, and is a good description of life in the early part of this century, although many of the peculiarities may be found in the schoolboy of today. The story presents an entertaining account of the trials through which a poor but aspiring youth is trying to make an effort to rise above his lowly position. No one who reads the work can fail to become interested in the road and ready wit of Jack, the hero of the story, the rough exterior of the heartless boy, the quaintness of little Columbus, his blustering but cowardly "Pewee" and Billy, the goodness of Mrs. Dudley, Jack's mother, who "makes allowance" for every boy's wrong doing; the smart quick-witted Susan; and the genuine old-time schoolmaster who succeeded by wit and the "witch" and the new teacher who was good, open and liberal and so on. This book is well illustrated and is for sale by all book-sellers or will be sent by mail, prepaid on receipt of price $1.00, by Chas. Scribner's Sons, New York.

A Whittier Calendar for 1881 has been issued by Houghton, Mifflin & Co. It is of the general style with the Emerson and Longfellow calendars, which have proved very acceptable to a multitude of admirers of those authors, for the appropriateness and artistic character of their designs, and for the great care and skill with which the daily sentences were made. The selections for the Whittier Calendar have been made from Mr. Whittier's poems and prose writings with singular skill and care. The design is entirely different from those of the Emerson and Longfellow calendars, but represents graciously certain leading features of Mr. Whittier's writings, which time are most strongly commending to the admiration and love of American readers. The price is the same as that of the Longfellow and Emerson calendars, one dollar.
